Dear Joel:

As the new school year gets under way, I know you all must be as busy as we in working out the kinks. Fall is always a busy time, but we do need to be planning for spring.

I would appreciate your beginning to prepare for the Annual Meeting. We need to select a meeting site, the date and give potential participants adequate notice if they desire to take part on the program. I will leave all of the preliminary specifics up to the Program Committee, but desire to be kept informed of your decisions.

Please let me know if there is any assistance which I or the other officers can provide.

Cordially,

Dr. Robert M. McChesney
